5. The Licensing and Safety Committee considered the comments made by the consultees outlined in paragraph 4 of this report and resolved to amend the Draft Gambling Policy where appropriate and to recommend approval to the Cabinet. A copy of the amended Policy is in the Members Room and on the Web.. The amendments to the Policy are highlighted in bold type script.

Finance

6. The costs of publication of the Gambling Policy will be met out of the Licensing budget.

Law

7. The Gambling Act 2005 section 349 (1)(a) and (b) requires all Local Authorities to prepare and publish a Licensing Policy.
8. The statutory consultees on that policy are set out in Section 349(3) of the Gambling Act 2005:-
 - The Chief Officer of Police
 - Representatives of persons carrying on gambling businesses.
 - Representatives of persons who are likely to be affected by or otherwise have an interest in the licensing policy.
9. The Gambling Commission Guidance to Local Authorities, Part 6.16, suggests that the Authority should use a variety of consultation methods including meetings with gambling businesses in the local authority area and open forums for the public.

In addition, consultation with a range of organisations including faith groups, voluntary and community organisations working with children and young people, organisations working with people who are problem gamblers, medical practices or primary care trusts, consultation with businesses who are, or will be holders of a premises licence, and consultation with the organisations named as responsible authorities in the Act.

Equality Impact

10. This report takes into account the Council's policy on equal opportunities.
11. This report takes into account the Council's policy on equality and diversity.
12. A Gambling Policy will impact equally on all racial groups.
13. A Gambling Policy will impact on children and young persons through their permitted attendance at certain categories of licensed premises.

14. There has been consultation and involvement of young people in developing this policy as part of the consultation process through the Area Committees and the Directorate of Children's Services.

Recommendation

15. That the Cabinet approves the recommendation of the Licensing and Safety Committee's in respect of the Council's Gambling Policy and recommends approval of the Policy to full Council.
