Subject: review for Naik's, New Street,Dudley

This is to inform you that the Police would like to make the following comments in relation to the review into Naiks off-licence, New Street, Dudley that has been requested by trading Standards,

The off-licence has been run by the same family for several years in this time there have been several allegations/reports of sale of alcohol to underage persons and as a result of this there have been numerous 'test purchasing' exercises carried out at these premises. There have been 3 positive sales made by staff during these test purchases and this has spanned over 2 different Dedicated Premises Supervisors, there was also a sale of fireworks to under age persons and this blatant disregard to the law seems indicative of the way the premises are run by the management/owners
