

Kay Dewinski

From: Julie Jones (L&P_CP)
Sent: 25 August 2009 12:44
To: Kay Dewinski
Subject: RE: Street Trader Mr D McGillcuddy 4/026(130)

Hello Kay
 Re Farmers Arts and Craft Mkt , Halesowen

I visited the 'farmers' market on Saturday 22nd August and noted that the goods sold on the stalls were a of a wide variety as follows:
 New books; jewellery; handbags; vinyl LP records and 7" vinyl singles records, plants and bulbs, cakes & pies, pickled garlic, vegetables, fruit and salad, meats, honey, eggs, cheese, cider, hand made crisps, soft toys, cooked samosas & pakoras.

My concern would be that the variety of goods sold needs to be more well defined and would suggest that it remains as farmers, arts and crafts. I cannot see how pakoras and samosas & soft toys should be part of a farmers arts and crafts market.

My concerns are that this market may slide towards becoming a general retail market.

Julie

Julie Jones
Curatorial Services &
Commercial Operations Manager
 ☎ 01384 813164 or 815396
 ✉ <mailto:julie.jones@dudley.gov.uk>

-----Original Message-----

From: Julie Jones (L&P_CP)
Sent: 12 August 2009 09:02
To: May Williams
Subject: RE: Street Trader Mr D McGillcuddy 4/026(130)

Thank you I will visit the market on Saturday 22nd and will send you an email on 24th August with my comments.
 Julie

Julie Jones
Curatorial Services &
Commercial Operations Manager
 ☎ 01384 813164 / 5396
 ✉ julie.jones@dudley.gov.uk

-----Original Message-----

From: May Williams
Sent: 11 August 2009 16:33
To: Julie Jones (L&P_CP)
Cc: liz rouse
Subject: RE: Street Trader Mr D McGillcuddy 4/026(130)

Hi Julie, he will not be going to committee until we have all the comments back, I will make sure Liz Rouse my supervisor knows that you are going to make a visit be for you make