

Licensing Sub-Committee 3 – 20th August 2013

Report of the Director of Corporate Resources

Application for House to House Collections Licence

Breast Cancer (Intersecond Ltd) “Do Not Delay”

Purpose of Report

1. To consider the application for the grant of a House to House Collections Licence in respect of Intersecond Ltd on behalf of the charity known as “Do Not Delay” Breast Cancer.

Background

2. On the 16th March 2012, Mr Edvardas Bruzdeilinas of Intersecond Ltd made application for a House to House Collections Licence in respect of the charity known as “Do Not Delay” Breast Cancer. A copy of that application was forwarded to Committee Members and interested parties.
3. In January 1999, the Licensing Section in accordance with the Neighbouring Authorities Working Group introduced a policy requiring all House to House Collection applicants to submit income and expenditure accounts for the previous financial year.
4. In recent years applications for House to House Collections have been received from independent commercial companies undertaking collections on behalf of specific charities. Therefore in November 2009 the Council introduced a further policy that all applicants for House to House Collection Licences be required to submit with the application income and expenditure accounts for the previous financial year of the charity for which the collection is being made and also for the company or organisation making the collection. This is to ensure that a substantial amount of the monies collected are used for charitable purposes.
5. Copies of the application were circulated to the West Midlands Police and the Directorate of the Urban Environment (Highways). These agencies raised no objections to the application.
6. This matter was considered by the Sub-Committee on the 6th June 2012. The Committee resolved that the matter be deferred until the 3rd July 2012 to allow both Ms Haughey and Mr Bruzdeilinas to be present at the hearing.
7. It was also noted that the accounts submitted for Intersecond Ltd did not show any details of donations to a specific charitable institution. Therefore the Committee requested further, more detailed accounts be submitted prior to the hearing on the 3rd July 2012.

8. This matter was considered by the Licensing Sub-Committee on the 3rd July 2012. The Committee resolved that the application be refused on the grounds that the applicant had refused or neglected to furnish to the Authority such information as they may reasonably require.
9. On the 29th April 2013, Mr Raimondas Biguzas of Intersecond Ltd made a further application on behalf of the charity known as "Do Not Delay" Breast Cancer.
10. Copies of the applications were circulated as in paragraph 5 above. None of the agencies raised objections.
11. This application was delayed due to the Licensing Office awaiting receipt of the requisite accounts.
12. This report has a direct link to the Council's policy for safety as the principal reason for submission is safeguarding the public.

Finance

13. There are no financial implications.

Law

14. House to house collection permits are governed by Section 2 of the House-to-House Collections Act 1939.
15. Council may refuse to grant a licence or where a licence has been granted may revoke it if it appears to the Authority:-
  - (a) that the total amount likely to be applied for charitable purposes as the result of the collection (including any amount already so applied) is inadequate in proportion to the value of the proceeds likely to be received (including any proceeds already received).
  - (b) that remuneration which is excessive in relation to the total amount aforesaid is likely to be, or has been, retained or received out of the proceeds of the collection by any person.
  - (c) that the grant of a licence would be likely to facilitate the commission of any offence under section three of the Vagrancy Act 1824, or that an offence under that section has been committed in connection with the collection.
  - (d) that the applicant or the holder of the licence is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence by reason of the fact that he has been convicted in the United Kingdom of any offences specified in the Schedule to this Act, or has been convicted in any part of His Majesty's dominions of any offence conviction for which necessarily involved a finding that he acted fraudulently or dishonestly, or of any offence of a kind the commission of which would be likely to be facilitated by the grant of a licence.

- (e) that the applicant or the holder of the licence, in promoting a collection in respect of which a licence has been granted to him, has failed to exercise due diligence to secure that persons authorised by him to act as collectors for the purposes of the collection were fit and proper persons, to secure compliance on the part of persons so authorised with the provisions of regulations made under this Act, or to prevent prescribed badges or prescribed certificate of authority being obtained by persons other than persons so authorised.
  - (f) that the applicant or holder of the licence has refused or neglected by furnish to the authority such information as they may have reasonably required for the purpose of informing themselves as to any of the matters specified in the fore-going paragraphs.
16. If the Committee refuse to grant a licence or revoke a licence which has been granted. There is a right of appeal within 14 days to the Secretary of State against the refusal or revocation of licence.

Equality Impact

- 17. This report takes into account the Council's policy on equal opportunities.
- 18. There has been no consultation or involvement of children and young people in developing these proposals.

Recommendation

- 19. That the Committee consider the applications for House to House Collections Licence in respect of Intersecond Ltd on behalf of the charity known as "Do Not Delay" Breast Cancer.
